STANLEY, IDAHO—The Sawtooth Society continues to bring exciting and engaging events for all to enjoy the benefits of the Sawtooth SNRA throughout the year. As a kick off to March, the Society will hold Twilight Ski at Galena Lodge on Thursday, March 6. The evening will begin at 5 p.m. with a free cocktail hour where information about the Society and the Sawtooth NRA will be presented.

“The twilight ski is a great opportunity to get to know the Sawtooth Society while enjoying the incredible area we advocate to protect,” said Volunteer and Membership Coordinator Kelly Conde.

After the presentation, enjoy the Sawtooth NRA with a ski by tiki torch. Headlamps are recommended for the ski and the lodge has rental equipment.

At the end of the ski, enjoy a delicious dinner at Galena Lodge from its a la carte menu. The lodge, located at the northern end of the Harriman Trail is an excellent winter outing especially to enjoy dinner with a cozy fire and a delicious gourmet meal. Dinner reservations are required.
