

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STANLEY, IDAHO—The Sawtooth Society is excited to take part in the Kegs4Kause event with the Payette Brewing Company in Boise on Monday, June 30, from 5:30 to 9:30 p.m. Enjoy music by Boise bands The Oliphants and Hillfolk Noir in the Payette Brewing Company taproom where 50 percent of the proceeds from beer sales will be donated to the Sawtooth Society.

The Oliphants will play from 5:30-7:30 p.m. and Hillfolk Noir will perform 7:30-9:30 p.m. In addition, representatives from the Sawtooth Society will be present to offer information about the organization including its programs, benefactors and on-ground work and resources.

“We want to get as many people to attend this fun event as we can,” said Kelly Conde, the Sawtooth Society’s volunteer/membership coordinator. “Supporting the Sawtooth Society is not just a great way to meet people, but it offers many opportunities to increase your enjoyment of living in Idaho.”

Stop by the Payette Brewing Company taproom for delicious microbrewery beer, excellent music and information about the Sawtooth Society. Learn about the Sawtooth Society functions, its volunteer programs and other opportunities.

The Sawtooth Society, formed in 1997, is the only non-profit group dedicated exclusively to serving as an advocate for the Sawtooth National Recreation Area, preserving open space in the Sawtooth National Recreation Area and enhancing its recreation facilities and services. The Sawtooth Society has funded over 160 recreational-related projects throughout the Sawtooth National Recreation Area.
