

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STANLEY, IDAHO— The Sawtooth Society along with the Wood River Valley Fat Bike Advocacy Group have teamed up for a second year of fun on fat bikes. The “Winterfest 40 Fat Bike Gran Fondo” will take place on Saturday, Feb. 20, in Stanley, Idaho as part of the 2016 Stanley Winterfest. This 40-kilometer fun ride with a 30-kilometer option will begin at 10 a.m. There is an entry fee of $30, which can be paid the day of the ride. To pre-register, visit winterfest40.athlete360.com/.

This year’s challenging and beautiful fun ride will start and end in downtown Stanley and wind through a variety of terrain with beautiful views of the majestic Sawtooth Mountains. Because this is not a race but a fun ride, costumes are encouraged. This ride is part of the 7th annual Stanley Winterfest, so come for the Fat Bike event and stay for live music, food and other fun Winterfest activities.

The Sawtooth Society, formed in 1997, is the only non-profit group dedicated exclusively to serving as an advocate for the Sawtooth National Recreation Area, preserving open space in the Sawtooth National Recreation Area and enhancing its recreation facilities and services. The Sawtooth Society has funded over 170 recreational-related projects throughout the Sawtooth National Recreation Area.
